

School Girls to Produce "Oh, Doctor!"

MISS MARY BUDD STEWART

MISS CLARA HOOD

MISS ELIZABETH FITE

It is leap year, as you know, and the young ladies of the Simple School propose an original musical frolic for charity on next Friday night in the Plaza Hotel. "Oh, Doctor!" is the name of the skit which will be presented by the girls, under the direction of Mr. Henry J. Sayers, for the charity fund of St. Matthew's Church, in West Twenty-fourth street. The performance will be followed by dancing.

In the cast will be Misses Dorothy Reed, Margaretta Shuman, Dorothy Royer, Elizabeth Fite, Elizabeth Lock, Amanda Cole, Jennie Cole, Letitia Magdon, Helen Aaron, Joyce (Gleason), Mary Budd Stewart, Maury Crawford, Sybil Goodman, Mary Bell Armbricht, Marie Cooper, Florence Watkins, Sammy Salomon, Robba Boba, Nina Simon, Mona Simon, Wanda Welles, Clara Hood, Grace Gunter, Mary Williams, Anne Hoste Hicks, Dorothy Shurtlett, Ann Hathaway, Marie Borden, Grace O'Neil, Jean Culbertson, Anne Green, Lily Tull and Rebecca Trahan.

Houses for the performance have been taken by Gen. T. Coleman de Pont, Mrs. Frederick H. Eaton, Mr. Robert Graves, Mr. Joseph W. Jones, Mr. Frank B. Carpenter and Mrs. Frank M. Seaman.

Tickets at $3 each and boxes at $20 may be had at the school, 241 Central Park West, and at the Plaza.

It is the policy of the school each year to interest the pupils in some philanthropic work to bring them in closer touch with the sterner side of life and to give them a desire to help those in need. The sum of $4,500 has been contributed to several New York hospitals through the efforts of the young women, and in the last two years their work yielded $1,750 for patriotic war funds.

Lubovska in Dance Programme. Lubovska will make a farewell appearance before going to Europe in new dances at the Greenwich Village Theatre this evening. She will be assisted by Ruth Albert and Jean Pifer and an orchestra under Oscar Lifshy.

Her interpretations of music will include "Incense Dance," Rimsky-Korsakov, "Death as Victory," Chopin, "Bacchante," Saint-Saens, and the "Egyptian Dance of Mourning" to Solenik's music.

Music and Comedy in Acts at Palace

Three Elaborate Productions on Programme—At Other Houses.

At the Palace Theatre this week the programme will abound in musical productions. Harry Carroll's revue, "Varieties of 1920," with himself as the star, will be the feature. Mr. Carroll wrote the seven song numbers. Book and lyrics are by Ballard MacDonald. Leon Errol staged the production. Miss Grace Fisher, Harry Miller and Higgins and Bates are among those in the company. The Ford Sisters will introduce an overall dance in their "Follies of 1920," accompanied by their own orchestra. A third elaborate musical act will be "Putting It Over," a condensation of the earlier revues, "You Know Me All" and "Let's Beat It." Herschel Henderson will return with his "Pianofoam." Other offerings include Rockwell and Fox, Miss

Emma Stephens and the Slayman Ben Ali Arabas. The principal attractions at other vaudeville houses follow: RIVERSIDE—Miss Emma Trentini in classical and operatic songs, Miss Rae Samuels and Miss Ethel Forde and Lester Sheehan. COLONIAL—Miss Eva Tanguay, Winston's Water Lions and Diving Nymphs and El Brendel and Flo Bert. THE AEOLIAN VOCALION

The Phonograph Supreme

In an Attractive "Period" Cabinet, at a Moderate Price and Unusually Liberal Terms

HE present popularity of furniture and decorations that conform with some period of the historic past is far more than a mere fad. It is a vital indication of cultural and artistic progress.

An Aeolian-Vocalion encased in a Period cabinet serves two purposes. It enhances the beauty of the room and furnishes good music in widest variety. And music is unquestionably the greatest source of home entertainment and pleasure.

The famous group of Period Vocalions, with their graceful, correct lines and proportions, their beautiful case-woods developed in "William and Mary," "Queen Anne," "Chippendale," "Gothic," "Duncan Phyfe," "Gothic-Windsor" and other Period designs, has become tremendously popular in a single season.

Due to industrial conditions we have been unable to meet the great demand for these Period Vocalions. We have just received, however, a limited number of some of the most popular designs and desire to call attention to the handsome "Gothic-Windsor" model, illustrated, the price of which is but $310.—purchasable on unusually attractive monthly terms.

The Gothic-Windsor Vocalion

Like its prototype, the Windsor chair, this graceful model will harmonize tastefully with almost any style of furnishing, and will impart to the room in which it is placed that same attractive atmosphere of the long ago.

None of the musical distinction that belongs to the Vocalion is sacrificed in these Period Models. They possess a pure, full tone, of great power and richness. Every voice and every instrument may be clearly heard in all its natural beauty and character.

The tone-volume of these Vocalions may be artistically modified by the GRADUOLA, the famous, exclusive Vocalion device with which you may graduate the flow of melody as you will—delicately coloring the music as your mood dictates—just as the great artists vary their performances in the concert hall.

Splendidly Equipped With Special Features

The Style 1495 is also equipped with The Vocalion Automatic Stop, simple to operate and famous for its accuracy.

The Vocalion Universal Tone-Arm which plays all makes of records, bringing out the full beauty of each, and requiring no added attachments; and a new and exceptionally convenient record-filing arrangement.

In selecting this Vocalion you may feel confident that you are securing a phonograph of highest quality: unequalled in tone; distinctive in appearance, and richer in special features than any other phonograph on the market.

The Gothic-Windsor Vocalion, price $310, illustrated above. Delivered to you for a Moderate Down Payment—balance in monthly terms of

A Novel of Lightning Vividness and Tremendous Power

HIS FRIEND AND HIS WIFE

By

COSMO HAMILTON

This is the story of the effects upon the young married set of the wealthy Quaker Hill colony in Connecticut, which followed an intrusion of the social code by Julian Osborn and Margaret Meredith.

Mr. Hamilton has written a powerful novel of present-day American life—the underlying theme being that no unrighteous act against the established social code can be committed without the price being paid as dearly by the innocent as by the guilty.
